

it in the wrong direction, seemingly setting it up for privatization in the future!

Mr. DeJoy needs to be removed ASAP. Closing post offices, removing mailboxes in areas where they are needed, slowing down mail delivery, not to mention his questionable business practices; he's not worthy of being Postmaster General!

Sincerely,

Kathleen Ruth

My late grandfather was Postmaster in Stuart, Fla. during the 50's & 60's. He instilled the respect my whole family has for postal workers & USPS in general.

For years I have defended the Post Office when people complained about rate increases. Where else do you get the kind of service the P.O. provides for such a small price to pay?

I believe that Louis DeJoy is ruining the Postal Service as we know it, taking
